POETRY FAN CLIPS

EM FROM BOOKS
IN LIBRARY, CHARGE

Richard Lester Doyle Specialized in American Verse and Kept Scrap-book, Says Investigator.

Richard Lester Doyle, thirty, No. 512 West 51st Street, was held in $1,000 bail in the West Side Court on a charge of mutilating books in the public library at Fifth Avenue and 42d Street. Edwin W. Gallard, an investigator for the library, recently found poems had been clipped from several volumes of American poetry.

He learned that while each of these volumes had been loaned to various readers Doyle was the only one who had borrowed all of them. The arrest followed it is alleged Doyle had a scrap book in which many of the missing poems had been pasted. He pleaded not guilty.
